

HIGHLIGHT OF TROVE

A highlight of the treasure trove is a copy of the first newspaper published west of the Mississippi, the third issue of the Missouri Gazette, forerunner of The Globe-Democrat, dated July 26, 1808, when it was established by the "fighting Irish editor," Joseph Charless.

In 1822 the Gazette became the Missouri Republican; its successor, the St. Louis Republic, was absorbed by The Globe-Democrat in 1919.

Mr. Eric P. Newman
P.O. Box 14020

Dear Mr. Newman:

When you receive the restored "Missouri Gazette," I think you will agree that the restoration was a spectacular success. However, my first estimate given on the report dated March 10th, 1982, and signed by you on March 12th, was the correct one. The cost of restoration should be $550. We sent you an unsolicited lower estimate on March 11th, but now feel that we must charge you at least $500 ($50 less than the actual cost).

We are returning the "Gazette" and the small clipping encapsulated in Mylar (separately), sealed from the air and with extensions all around. We suggest that the Mylar be left on the piece if you plan to frame it. The Mylar will not be apparent and will give excellent protection. Otherwise, if you plan not to frame the piece, you may want to trim back the extensions on the margins.

Sincerely,

New York, NY 10011

Dear Ms. Horton:

Please send the repaired "so-called" 1808 Missouri Gazette to the same address as on your July 7, 1982 letter.

I am sorry to say it is probably a fake. There was a reprint in 1908 and I think that is what I acquired. I am quite disappointed that your price went up after so long a delay, or I would have canceled the work. The insurance I didn't wish. Do not register the item when you mail it to us. There was no letter for us to sign as stated in your July 6 Invoice. Everything seems to have gone wrong.

A check for $285 ($275 balance plus $10 for postage and wrapping) is enclosed. Much of my disappointment is not your fault, so please bear with me.

Sincerely,

Eric P. Newman

July 23, 1984

Dear friends and clients:

After many years in the field of book and art conservation I have decided to retire and close my studio.

It is a source of satisfaction to me that the high standards of quality that I have tried to establish in the book and art restoration field are being maintained by the many assistants I have helped to train. They are now employed in libraries and museums in Europe, Canada and the United States, or have established their own studios. I take this opportunity to thank them, and also my many valued clients and colleagues, for helping to make my career as a conservator happy and productive.

When I close my studio some of my present associates, equally talented and dedicated, will be available either for new employment or continuing work in their fields. I recommend them all very highly.

Enclosed is a list of their names, addresses and telephone numbers and descriptions of their specialties.

Sincerely,

Carolyn Horton

FORMER ASSOCIATES OF CAROLYN HORTON AVAILABLE FOR EMPLOYMENT AND/OR RESTORATION WORK.
Summer 1984

EXECUTIVE ASSOCIATE - Margot H. Gerson, (212) 929-4342
420 West 24 Street, N.Y., NY 10011

Mrs. Gerson has been with me for over thirteen years, and has been in charge of all business and administrative matters, helping to make this business a success.

SECRETARY-TYPIST - Linda Richmond, (212) 874-2886 or service #(212) 868-1162
128 West 75 Street, N.Y., NY 10025

Mrs. Gerson's assistant, Ms. Richmond has been a capable, resourceful and cheerful presence. She applies herself competently and willingly to any job.

CONSERVATOR OF ART ON PAPER, VELLUM & DOCUMENTS - Mariol Gallichio, (212) 864-4719
323 West 101 Street, N.Y., NY 10025

Ms. Gallichio, one of the leading paper-conservators in the country, has worked with me for over ten years. She is establishing her own business.

BOOKBINDER-RESTORERS - Elaine Schlefer, (212) 427-8622
4 East 89 Street, N.Y., NY 10128

Mrs. Schlefer, who has been my top binder and restorer for the last two and a half years, has joined the staff of the New York Public Library to head their book restoration department. She will continue to take private commissions.

Susan B. Martin, (212) 877-1043
